Explanatory Statement pursuant to Section 173 of the Companies Act, 1956 in respect of the special resolution pertaining to Section 21 of the Companies Act, 1956 passed on April 25, 2008 by Postal Ballot

The erstwhile Industrial Development Bank of India (IDBI) was established as a term-lending financial institution under the Industrial Development Bank of India Act, 1964 [18 of 1964] [IDBI Act]. In accordance with its charter as well as the statutory restrictions placed upon it, erstwhile IDBI functioned purely in the capacity of a term-lending financial institution, and was not permitted to engage in commercial banking or retail banking. Ultimately, in view of the statutory restrictions, in the year 1994, IDBI was constrained to promote an independent subsidiary company known as IDBI Bank Limited. IDBI Bank Limited was at all times a separate and distinct legal entity which engaged purely in commercial banking and retail banking, i.e., the areas in which IDBI itself was unable to operate. Pursuant to the provisions of Industrial Development Bank (Transfer of Undertaking and Repeal) Act, 2003 [53 of 2003] (IDBI Repeal Act), the business and undertaking of erstwhile IDBI, a statutory corporation established under IDBI Act has been transferred to, and vested in, Industrial Development Bank of India Limited, (IDBI Limited), a company registered and incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) and a banking company within the meaning of section 5(c) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (10 of 1949) with effect from 01.10.2004 vide notification dated 29.09.2004 issued by Government of India (Ministry of Finance, Department of Economic Affairs, Banking Division). Pursuant to IDBI Repeal Act, IDBI Limited is also permitted to carry on the banking business in accordance with the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 in addition to the business, which was already carried on and transacted by erstwhile IDBI as a term-lending financial institution.

Reserve Bank of India (RBI), the central bank of the country, vide order dated 01.04.2005 issued under sub-section (4) of section 44A of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 sanctioned the scheme of amalgamation of erstwhile IDBI Bank Ltd. (Transferor Bank) with IDBI Limited (Transferee Bank) with effect from 02.04.2005. Under the Scheme of Amalgamation, IDBI Limited is the continuing legal entity. In view of the change in the structure and organization of the erstwhile IDBI and the business to be transacted, it became necessary to change the name to reflect the business transacted by the company, namely, IDBI Ltd. Hence, it is proposed to change its name to "IDBI Bank Limited."

In-Principle approval of the Central Government as also no objection of Reserve Bank of India in terms of Section 49B of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 have been obtained for the proposed change of name to IDBI Bank Limited. The Registrar of Companies (ROC), Maharashtra has made the aforesaid name, viz., "IDBI Bank Limited" available to the company for adoption. In terms of Section 21 of the Companies Act, 1956, the name of a company can be changed by passing a Special Resolution of the members and upon approval of the Central Government signified in writing. It is, therefore, proposed to pass the Special Resolution, as contained in the Notice, by postal ballot in terms of Section 192A of the Companies Act, 1956.

The Board of Directors trust that this change of name will have members support and approval.

None of the directors of the company, whether directly or indirectly, is concerned or interested in the passing of the aforesaid Resolution except as a member of the company.

- (i) The Capital Adequacy Ratio of the Bank as on March 31, 2010 is 11.31%, and well above the 9% stipulated by Reserve Bank of India. - (vii) The detailed terms and conditions for the offer will be determined in consultation with the Advisors, Book Running Lead Managers and Underwriters and such other authority or authorities as may be required, considering the prevailing market conditions and other regulatory requirements.
- (viii) As the pricing of the offering cannot be decided except at a later stage, it is not possible to state the price of shares to be issued.
